Environmental Policy

The Associated Newsagents Co-operative Ltd. or ANCOL (SA) is a supplier of stationery & office supplies to newsagents & business's throughout South Australia & the Northern Territory.

ANCOL (SA) recognise that all businesses have the potential to impact negatively on the environment.

We are therefore committed to managing our operations, products and services in an environmentally responsible manner.

Through this commitment, our organisation will strive to:

- Prevent pollution;
- Appropriately manage our overall environmental impacts;
- Meet and where possible exceed all environmental legislation, regulations and other requirements to which our organisation subscribes;
- Strive to undertake our operations using minimum impact methodologies;
- Align our environmental goals with those of our customers – as a basis to strive (where practicable) to help our customers realise their own environmental goals;
- Reduce our organisation's carbon emissions;
- Improve the environmental awareness of people working for, or on behalf, of our organisation (i.e. employees, contractors and sub-contractors);
- Appropriately store and use chemicals to minimise environmental risk;
- Obtain only positive feedback regarding our businesses operations / management program, regarding our environmental performance; and
- Use the waste management hierarchy to improve our resource use efficiency.

We will ensure we manage our operations responsibly and strive to continually improve our environmental performance.

It is the responsibility of all employees, visitors, contractors and sub-contractors to fully support this policy through active participation and co-operation.

This policy will be regularly reviewed as part of our organisations environmental management programme.
